It's not too late to stop the NS2 pipeline.

And it's not too late to remember that Obama-Biden originally allowed it.

So let's be clear: they launched it and will

It violates the Hatch Act, endorses one NGO over another and undermines American security by endorsing calls for defunding the police.

3 crucial points:

- virus started in China.
- either in Wuhan lab or animal to human transmission (code word for Wetmarket)
- IC doesn't need to be instructed to investigate, it's what they do.

Many businesses in California insist on following @GavinNewsom's political whims despite the CDC rules allowing mask free living.

Yet, many of these same businesses support sanctuary cities polices which ignore Federal law.

Corporate America is kneeling to the ruling party.

They want to cheat. Biden is calling for suspending practical rules. Now that they've opened the border they want to suspend needed voting rules.

This has nothing to do with making it harder to vote. Everyone eligible to vote can easily vote.

The hate mail is more motivated by the fact that liberals and their news outlets spent a year maligning lab-leak as an unhinged conspiracy theory and now are embarrassed -- same reason they get angry if you mention Brian Sicknick's Medical Examiner report or the Steele Dossier.

The conservative movement lost a great friend today. @FosterFriess was a generous supporter of so many causes including my beloved @LogCabinGOP. I was honored by his generosity to me and us - and grateful for his American spirit.

RIP Foster.

The conservative movement lost a great friend today. @FosterFriess was a generous supporter of so many causes including my beloved @LogCabinGOP. I was honored by his generosity to me and us - and grateful for his American spirit.

RIP Foster.

. @JoeBiden's statement on the historic peace deal fails to include any reference to his appeasement of Iran.

Giving pallets of cash to the Regime in Tehran was an epic disaster for our Arab partners and US security.

Thank God, @realDonaldTrump cleaned up Biden's mess.

Why can't @JoeBiden end his own interviews?

90% of the soldiers on the first boats to hit the beach didn't live to see the end of the day. Look at those faces. Some of them never made it to 18. Never voted, never loved a woman. They paid the ultimate price for your freedom. You live your life the way you do because of them.

The Obama Biden Administration knew that IC career professionals were raising early red flags on their Russian collusion narrative.

How come no journals are asking the DNC if they'd use a law firm as a cutout to hire a foreign spy to dig up dirt on Trump like they did in '16? The Trump campaign has been steadily asked if it would accept foreign help. Democrats have avoided the same scrutiny.

Maybe now that Joe Manchin has said it reporters will finally take some interest in the 33 Senate Democrats who changed positions on the filibuster as soon as they got into power.

wvgazette.com/opinion/op_ed_...

As a reminder, just four short years ago, in 2017 when Republicans held control of the White House and Congress, President Donald Trump was publicly urging Senate Republicans to eliminate the filibuster. Then, it was Senate Democrats who were proudly defending the filibuster. Thirty-three Senate Democrats penned a letter to Sens. Chuck Schumer, D-N Y and Mitch McConnell, R Ky, warning of the perils of eliminating the filibuster.

What you never hear from CNN and the DC media crowd is that 17 US intelligence agencies issued a rare public statement making clear that Covid 19 started in China. And the secret Chinese Communist ways made the virus spread worse.

This is from US intelligence agencies.

It's scary that you cover foreign policy because you are a total Democrat activist.

Any unbiased observer knows it was planned, approved and construction began under Obama/Biden.

The Trump team dramatically slowed it down and ensured it wasn't finished.

This type of ridiculous spin only works in DC.

We heard her. And we heard her before. This wasn't the first time she likened America to terrorists. It's shameful. And disgusting.

To be clear, Omar was referring to two specific ICC investigations involving the US & the Taliban in Afghanistan & Israel & Hamas in Gaza.

Which cities in America are you less safe in than Iran?

Charlotte Clymer @cmclymer

Yes, there were at least 44 trans and non-binary people murdered in the United States last year while YOUR boss ignored the problem and pushed policies that further marginalized us and enabled that violence. Facts don't care about your cult membership, Sweetie. twitter.com/richardgrenell...

America is the safest place in the world for trans people and stats prove it.

@cmclymer needs to stop acting like a pathetic victim.

Trans violence is a statistical outlier and she's a liar for saying anything otherwise.

Charlotte Clymer @cmclymer

I never said Iran is a safe place for LGBTQ people. My point is that I don't need a passport to be murdered for being trans. There are too many places in the country where I'm in far more danger than I would be in Iran. And guess what's especially sad here? You know that. twitter.com/arthurschwartz

President Trump wishes President Biden "good luck" on his upcoming meeting with Putin and tells him "don't fall asleep during the meeting."

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

As President, I had a great and very productive meeting in Helsinki, Finland, with President Putin of Russia. Despite the belated Fake News portrayal of the meeting, the United States won much, including the respect of President Putin and Russia. Because of the phony Russia, Russia, Russia Hoax, made-up and paid for by the Democrats and Crooked Hillary Clinton, the United States was put at a disadvantage—a disadvantage that was nevertheless overcome by me. As to who do trust, they asked, Russia or our "intelligence" from the Obama era, meaning people like Comey, McCabe, the two Spies, Brennan, Clapper, and numerous other sneezebags, or Russia, the answer, after all that has been found out and written, should be obvious. Our government has rarely had such lowlifes as these working for it. Good luck to Biden in dealing with President Putin—don't fall asleep during the meeting, and please give him my warmest regards!

The continued deception and mass hysteria is on full display, folks.

@cmclymer is literally claiming its safer to be trans in Iran than America.

But when your entire fundraising model is based on being a perpetual victim, you have to keep the argument going...to absurdity.

Charlotte Clymer @cmclymer

I never said Iran is a safe place for LGBTQ people. My point is that I don't need a passport to be murdered for being trans. There are too many places in the country where I'm in far more danger than I would be in Iran. And guess what's especially sad here? You know that. twitter.com/arthurschwartz.

It's a pretty well documented fact. I wasn't a fan of the previous guy, but if we're comparing, like, in this basic format, at least the previous guy didn't take part in questions and knew where he was for 5 minutes without wandering off. Dear God....the @nytimes justifies mocking the American flag because Donald Trump likes the American flag.

It's propaganda for the ruling party. We see it.

NYTimes Communications @NYTimesPR

New York Times editorial board member Mara Gay's comments on MSNBC have been irresponsibly taken out of context. Her argument was that Trump and many of his supporters have politicized the American flag. The attacks on her today are ill-informed and grounded in bad faith.

Dear God....the @nytimes justifies mocking the American flag because Donald Trump likes the American flag.

It's propaganda for the ruling party. We see it.

New York Times editorial board member Mara Gay's comments on MSNBC have been irresponsibly taken out of context. Her argument was that Trump and many of his supporters have politicized the American flag. The attacks on her today are informed and grounded in bad faith.

I really wish our eggheads in the foreign service/intelligentsia grasped this better. It seems like the State Dept. is flush with career diplomats who see 'diplomacy' as an end in itself instead of a means for the United States to achieve foreign policy victories.

The Grenell Show is such a wonderful foil. Still, it'll be great to get back to having a career diplomat in place who will raise the same issues at a volume we can safely ignore. Better for everybody's blood pressure.

Europe's diplomacy is working. They compliment Biden, he falls for it and they get what they want:

A Russian pipeline, more climate money from the US, more US troops in Europe, more Iran trade, unfettered China access.

Europe ❤️'s Biden!

The evidence is real - Biden is caving on sanctions (Syria Iran and NS2) and this is exactly what Europe has asked for....but it's fair to ask what does the US get for going backwards on sanctions? I believe we are less safe. The US threat is somewhat different than Europe's.

Again, these reporters do not even disguise that they wrote this piece to discredit opponents of critical race theory. This belongs in the Nation, not NBC News. But there is increasingly no difference at all.

Here's the whole story about how national groups and conservative media have parachuted into small towns to kickstart fights over what they claim is "critical race theory"

Putin and the Russian Foreign Ministry will agree to almost anything in a press statement at this point because they got a pipeline of leverage for decades to come.

It's words on paper vs. gas and cash for 20 plus years.

Ummmm, Putin got a pipeline of cash and Influence for the next 20 years.

There is nothing successful about this development.

Takeaways from Biden/Putin summit so far

Cordial, no surprises, broad intention to improve diplomatic engagement, vague willingness to engage on areas of joint interest (including cyber attacks)....

If you're referring to Nordstream 2, that is indeed a negative development for US interests...but it's not a change. Was going to happen under either administration.

Only way to prevent it is if the Greens win German elections (unlikely).

If there was ever a thought that Nordstream 2 was not going to be completed, then we are living in a alternate reality. No matter who wins German elections it is going to be completed. They are pragmatic thinkers.

There is a global awakening to the tyranny

We are no longer being fooled by career

We are awake to China.
We are awake to the Marxist agenda. We are awake to the evil plan to overtake

Funny how Twitter, Facebook, NCAA, and MLB can refuse to do business with certain people (and even entire states) without consequences. But small business owners will be forced to violate their conscience to accommodate people who hate them or be financially ruined.

A quick update. It's not working as well as we hoped it would. This cancer is rare and aggressive. But so am I.

We do not want to demand groupthink. In America, we have options and are not threatened by diverse opinions.

There are a lot of MAGA people who are still fooled by Mike Pompeo. Yes, he was loyal to Trump - that's how he stayed around - but he's a life-long career Deep State defender and warmonger - that's why he became CIA Director - and he passionately drove the Assange prosecution.

Glenn Greenwald @gggreenwald

The Obama DOJ decided not to bring charges. He wasn't indicted until the Trump admin. When Pompeo was CIA Director early on, he - along with Sessions - vowed to make it a top priority to destroy Assange, and then indicted him.

A big IRS is a BIG problem.

President Biden's plans to give the IRS an additional $40 billion — the equivalent of adding 87,000 new agents.

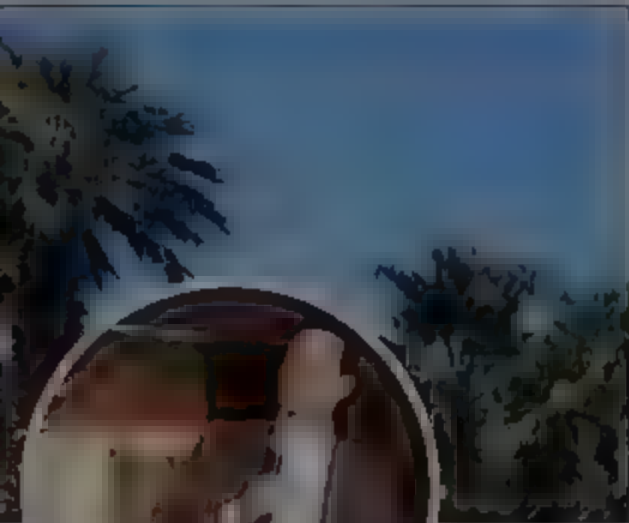

A super-sized IRS should be frightening news to every American!

New on Substack for subscribers, Jen Psaki walks out to the podium each and every day and cultivates the vine of messaging on racism. It's here, it's there, it's everywhere.

Psaki operates like an attentive gardener, making sure each plant is watered

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 36s

Yesterday, when asked about Nikole Hannah-Jones who just that morning cried racism in explaining why she is ditching L'Oréal for Howard University, Psaki was sure to drop a big dollop of race messaging onto the plates of reporters.

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 35s

"I think there's no question that there continues to be systemic racism in our country," explained Psaki. "We see that in a range of sectors, including in some learning institutions."

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 34s

When it was White House reporter April Ryan's turn to ask a question, out came "civil rights law" and "collapsed voting rights" and "police" and "reparations" and the "KKK members and White Supremacists" and "Charlottesville," among others.

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 34s

Just the premise and racially tinged buzzwords. In Ryan's questions would be enough to convince anyone who didn't know better that not only Jim Crow, but slavery was making a return to the country.

Did Psaki take a moment to at any fears?

Nope

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 33s

She might have said that voting rights have not "collapsed" or that two dozen posers in Philly do not constitute a new and rising threat and there is nothing to worry about but she did not.

1 11

Tom Shattuck · @tomshattuck · 33s

The more the Biden administration can scare the hell out of black voters the better. The constant drumbeat is to quote Biden himself in 2012, that Republicans want "to put y'all back in chains."

They never miss a chance to throw gasoline on the fire. Never. Biden uses "Jim Crow" in reference to voting laws, routinely. Psaki fills news outlets with content about equity, and the systemic racism around every corner.

Never forget - @FBI leadership knew the Steele dossier was a hit piece from the @DNC and @HillaryClinton - and knew the sources were fake. The sources admitted this to the FBI.

And yet the FBI didn't stop the spying, investigations or falsehoods presented to the courts.

. @ericgarcetti fails to keep the LA beaches free of raw sewage.

healthebay

Los Angeles, California

healthebay PUBLIC HEALTH ALERT 7 million gallons of raw sewage were spilled into the Santa Monica Bay on July 11-12. Currently Dockweiler State Beach and El Segundo Beach are closed to the public. The City of Los Angeles and LA County Department of Public Health are testing beaches and water in the Santa Monica Bay. We recommend staying out of the water Since we don't know where this contamination ended up, the safest route is to avoid water contact in the Santa Monica Bay until test results show that beaches are safe for swimming.

The sewage spill started at 4pm on 7/11/2021 and stopped at about 5am on 7/12/2021. We are told by City of LA's Bureau of Sanitation that the spill was stopped early this morning and all sewage is now being treated normally.

Why did this happen? We understand the inflow to the Hyperion plant in El Segundo was severely clogged and flooded the facility. The sewage left the facility untreated through the 1-mile pipe and outfall. This is fully the responsibility of the City of LA and their Bureau of Sanitation.

He instructs the advocates at the LA Times who pose as reporters to say "right wing" over and over in their pieces. And then quotes a Left wing activist as "nonpartisan".

These concerns are not anti-trans or right-wing.

The Supreme Court of California has declined to hear my lawsuit challenging the Los Angeles County mask mandate. On behalf of myself, @pnjaban, and @RichardGrenell's #FixCalifornia, here is my response to the decision:

Fadde Mikhail V. LA County Department of Public Health

Breaking: California Supreme Court Declines to Hear Lawsuit Challenging Los Angeles County's New Mask Mandate

Sacramento, Calif. Without hearing both sides' initial arguments, the California Supreme Court declined today to hear a lawsuit that was filed last week by Dillon Law Group, the firm of attorney Chad Dillon, in conjunction with Richard Grenell's #FixCalifornia PAC and on behalf of plaintiff Fadde Mikhail (Fadde) against the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health challenging its new indoor mask mandate for vaccinated individuals, which is contrary to Center for Disease Control and Prevention's guidelines.

This mask mandate is overbroad and doesn't follow nationally recognized and accepted guidance from the CDC or Cal/OSHA, which clearly states that "vaccinated persons are not required to wear face coverings in indoor spaces, but are encouraged to do so if they prefer." While cases have risen in Los Angeles and California, these disastrous mandates have resulted in no better mitigation outcomes than in mask-optional states such as Florida and Texas. Moreover, these mandates have already led to a decrease in business and revenue for already struggling businesses, and for no discernible public benefit.

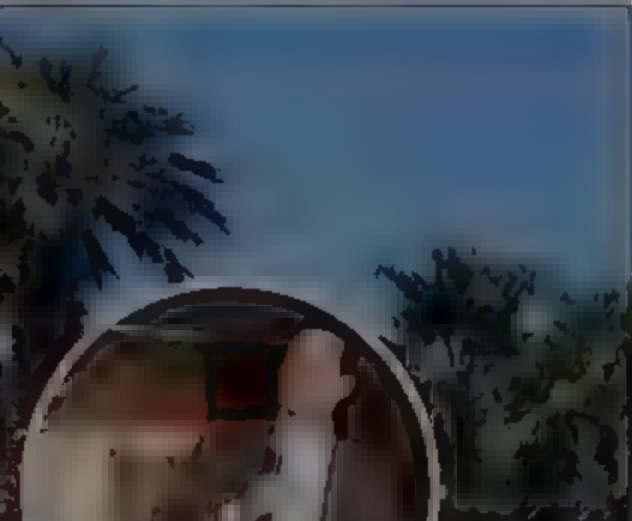

These mandates are intended to spark fear and encourage vaccine efforts; however, mandates devoid of scientific backing aren't increasing the public's confidence in the vaccines - in fact, they are having the opposite effect.

Los Angeles County is home to 10 million residents, and the bipartisan sentiments of several elected officials throughout the county have aligned with the lawsuit, yet some officials are willingly ignoring science-backed mitigation efforts and choosing to disrupt the county's slow economic recovery. The courts know that all COVID-19 vaccines are effective against the Delta variant, but by refusing to hear arguments, they're ignoring the pleas by elected officials within the county to engage with business owners and citizens to create a policy that allows cities to deal with their own unique problems.

By The California Supreme Court's refusal to hear this case and act on this urgent matter by providing L.A. County residents and business owners with immediate relief from these

Congressman Clay Higgins

Public Official · 1h

We very much appreciate the tremendous outpouring of love and kindness over the past 10 days from the hundreds of friends and supporters who have reached out to me directly.

I keep my family's private business very quiet, because of the evil in the world, yet we are uplifted by the love of God's children, and quiet privacy does not mean secrecy. So, here's the update.

I have COVID, Becca has COVID, my son has COVID. Becca and I had COVID before, early on, in January 2020, before the world really knew what it was. So, this is our second experience with the CCP biological attack weaponized virus... and this episode is far more challenging. It has required all of my devoted energy.

We are all under excellent care, and our prognosis is positive. We are very healthy generally speaking, and our treatment of any health concern always encompasses western, eastern, and holistic variables.

I ask that my family's privacy be respected. Media inquiries should be directed to my DC office.

I love and respect you all. I am honored and humbled to serve you in Congress. Our mission will continue. My family and I will recover fully. Your prayers, support is felt deep within my family and will never be forgotten.

Respectfully
Clay Higgins

To start, we need to focus on Dr. Fauci's perspective on the virus itself and its risk to the United States

In late January 2020, Fauci said that COVID was a "very, very low risk to the United States."

I think it goes without saying that his perspective has evolved since.

Director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases said Sunday the American public should be prepared for a potential outbreak in China.

low risk to the United States." Fauci said in a show host John Catimatidis.

320 people are dying of COVID per day nationwide. 1700 are dying per day of heart disease. 1600 of cancer. 473 from accidents. The COVID death rate is a tenth of what it was at its peak. 9 of the 10 most populated cities are recording 5 or fewer COVID deaths per day. Perspective.

Authoritarian libs like David are proud to support segregation in America. People of color have the lowest vaccination rates. Why do you hate people of color so much?

David Rothschild @DavidM_Roth

@Surabees you are free to open up a private business where unvaccinated people spit in each others faces, but the government is encouraging responsible private businesses to require a vaccine, just as they can require shirts/shoes, or anything else (that is not discriminatory)

Why did you do this?

According to the report, Melissa DeRosa, Cuomo's top aide, saw Boylan's tweet and asked Alphonso David — who previously served as Cuomo's top lawyer, and now works as the president of the Human Rights Campaign — for Boylan's "full file."

David sent those to Rich Azzopardi, a top Cuomo advisor. Azzopardi sent those files to reporters at The New York Times, the Associated Press, The New York Post, and other publications, according to the report.

With the #MeToo movement, #MeTooism is a social movement that advocates for the rights of women and girls who have been sexually harassed or assaulted. It is a movement that is based on the idea that women and girls should be able to live their lives without being sexually harassed or assaulted.

Human Rights Campaign board chairs tell me today, in response to an inquiry on the NY AG report, they have "full confidence" in Alphonso David and his contract has been renewed

"We were proud to extend his contract to stay on in his role for five more years."

"The Human Rights Campaign and Human Rights Campaign Foundation Boards have full confidence in Alphonso David as president of the organization in recognition of his extraordinary leadership during extremely challenging times. We were proud to extend his contract to stay on in his role for five more years. For the last two years he has been boldly leading the organization as it works to achieve its mission: full equality for all LGBTQ people. In the midst of a global pandemic, a nationwide reckoning on racial justice, and the most important presidential election of our lifetimes."

Conclusion

It is essential that Members be able to adequately protect themselves and their families, whether in their homes or in public settings, from credible threats against them because of their status as a Member. As outlined in the report set forth above, the Constitution's strict limits on the ability of Members to be financially disadvantaged by the federal government are essential to protect both the Member and the Member's immediate family, and that such use of campaign funds is not an impermissible personal use.

Washington, DC was meant to be a place where politicians and reporters went to serve the people of the United States temporarily...and then went back HOME.

It's now an out of control beast where partisan reporters are permanent residents who fight for a bigger Federal Government.

The State Department issued a hand-wringing statement during the Super Bowl.

They didn't want you to see that their actions two days ago encouraged more violence.

Iran smells weakness.

Ned Price @StateDeptSpox

The U.S. is deeply troubled by continued Houthi attacks. We call on the Houthis to immediately cease attacks impacting civilian areas in Saudi Arabia & to halt any new military offensives inside Yemen, which only bring more suffering to the Yemeni people. go.usa.gov/xs3Kj

Presidents deserve to have their nominees given up or down votes without delay.

Democrats were absolutely awful to Trump's nominees. What they did was unprecedented.

The GOP should give Biden's nominees a vote - and not do what Democrats did.

And the media need to remind them.

I have lived in CA under Gavin Newsom's regime. I used to be a Democrat. It is politicians like Newsom, & the revelation of Truth given by the LORD, that I no longer affiliate with any political party. My childhood state is now a restrictive & oppressive disaster by design.

Major blow for D's. @CaliforniaGlobe is now hearing rumors @SpeakerPelos is strongly considering not running for re-election. Biden and Pelosi are pleased with the current situation in Afghanistan. Our Secretary of State says we are winning.

Whether it's the border or Afghanistan the Democrat leadership isn't living in reality.

Nancy Pelosi @SpeakerPelosi

The President is to be commended for the clarity of purpose of his statement on Afghanistan and his action. The Taliban must know the world is watching its actions. We are concerned about reports regarding the Taliban's brutal treatment of all Afghans, especially women and girls.

The lesson of this Afghanistan disaster isn't that we should never leave.

The real lessons are that we prob should have left a decade ago after killing Bin Laden & that having a POTUS like Biden who is disengaged, unprepared & totally shot mentally, has real world consequences.

One other lesson There are a so real world consequences to our Generals and national security leadership focusing more on pronouns and CRT than how to properly implement a withdrawal that they only had 20 years or so to plan. A total disgrace.

And for those doubting that Biden has been totally disengaged, then explain why hasn't he even had a single phone call with the PM of Pakistan to plan for the withdrawal?...No big deal, they're only the most important stakeholder in the region. 🤔

Lots of people said “enough”.

Today was a day to explain why the Taliban took over so quickly and he was unprepared.

He also surged US troops over the last week so his “enough” is more of the same.

LA County admits that they've been doing this for years.

Yes, we know. It's a huge problem that they don't see.

Being able to see if someone voted YES on the recall (in the largest county in the state) is scary.

Political reporters in Sacramento just don't care.

President Biden has damaged his credibility.

Now in a speech and press conference he's made statements that just do not correspond with his own previous statements and the reality of what's on the ground in Afghanistan.

If the US evacuates all Americans safely, unlikely there's lasting impact on Biden's domestic popular support.

But his credibility with coalition allies has been seriously damaged.

To be clear, you can't find a leader in Europe that wishes Trump were still in office (unless you consider Orban a leader).

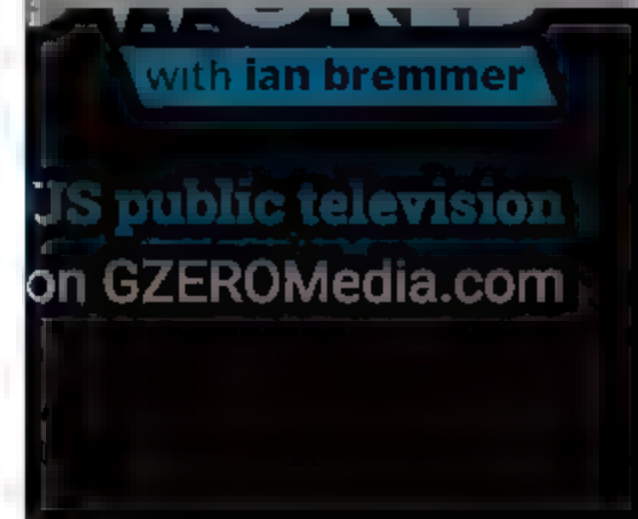

But "America Is Back" has taken a lasting hit among NATO allies.

Rich.. Wasn't it these same career officials that were causing problems under the Trump Administration? I understand the need for these career people but they are not the elected officials and it feels like these career positions are what runs our government? Am I wrong?

Haha! Peter Baker thinks newspapers determine how Americans think.

It's not just Biden who is out of touch.

Peter Baker @peterbakernyt

The Biden team's cold political calculation is that Americans won't care what happens in Afghanistan as long as Americans are safe. To their point, today there are no front page stories on Afghanistan in cities like Boston, Austin, Chicago, Atlanta, Indianapolis, Fresno or Miami.
